

The Special Education Handbook is currently being revised to reflect recent changes addressed through the legislature. If you need any information concerning standard practices for Alaska Special Education please feel free to contact the state office for special education directly at (907) 465-8693 or email sped@alaska.gov.

Thank you for your consideration during this period of positive change for Alaska students.